

Martha Leishman

Drama at Work

A Facilitated Group Session to meet the needs of Speakers and Presenters

We use with a combination of coaching and acting techniques to help you deliver your key messages with confidence. All participants will receive coaching, and individual notes as a follow up.

We cover the following:

Speech: Make your presentation your own, without compromising the corporate message

Script: Manage your script effectively to enable you to focus on your audience

Style: Use appropriate techniques to back up your unique selling point

BENEFITS OF THIS APPROACH

- ✓ Peer support is enabled

KEY MESSAGES FOR THE TEAM

- ✓ A shared approach to clarify the team message

FILLING IN THE GAPS

- ✓ Each participant will work to develop their unique style

Aims:

- To empower speakers by building on strengths and developing confidence
  - To enable constructive feedback amongst colleagues, for future and current presentations
  - Develop appropriate critical faculty for self, and others' presentations
  - Raise skills level for public speaking and presenting, individually and collectively
-
- There are places for a maximum of eight participants
  - We can also provide a crew to film your presentations, for playback and review in one-to-one sessions